Dear Ms. Bridget Roderman,

Thank you for your donation of Brainstorm to the Boston University School of Medicine. It hangs proudly in our Center for the Study of Traumatic Encephalopathy. Due to the extensive media interest in our research, it will also appear in the backdrop of numerous media outlets and documentaries. Most recently, it served as the backdrop for interviews for the documentary Head Games: The Sports Concussion Crisis directed by Peabody award winner Steve James and a Dr. Sanjay Gupta documentary for CNN, both debuting in early 2012.

Thank you for sharing your talent with us and all those we serve.

Sincerely,
